FOLK GROUP OF SONG AND DANCE " JUBILAT" ŚWIDNICA

The Folk Group of Song and Dance “Jubilat” was founded in 1975, on the initiative of Alfred Galant, the then director of Świdnica`s Railway Carriage Factory, and the municipal authorities. At that time, it was conceived as the factory amateur dancing ensemble. The first-night performance, showing the programme entitled “From the Minuet to the Rock`n`Roll”, took place on October 23, 1976, and had been prepared to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Świdnica`s Railway Carriage Factory.

Since then, for over 40 years, the inhabitants of not only Świdnica but also other places in the Lower Silesia as well as places in Poland and abroad, have had the opportunity to applaud the artists, continuously improving their performance skills.

In 1981 the patronage over the “Jubilat” group was taken over by Świdnicki Ośrodek Kultury (Świdnica`s Cultural Centre) and has continued up till now.

Although originated in the Lower Silesia (south-west Poland), the main objective of the “Jubilat” group is to cultivate the folk traditions of all regions of Poland, to promote and draw from the abundant resources of the Polish folk culture, and thus to rescue from oblivion its impressive heritage.
